

Dear Educator,

Have you ever tried to explain to your students how to load a 19th century rifle or how Napoleonic tactics worked? Bring them to Pleasant Hill, Louisiana on April 13th to the Battle of Pleasant Hill Re-enactment School Day, and we will show them for you! The Battle of Pleasant Hill Re-enactment Committee would like to invite you and your students to our annual School Day held on Friday, April 13, 2018.

School day will begin at 9:00 A.M. for your class to get a firsthand look at history! Please plan to arrive approximately 8:45 A.M. since rotations will begin promptly at 9:00 A.M. To get the most out of their visit, there is a worksheet to help your students interact with the Living Historians that can be found on our website. There is no charge for the students or parents on School Day. Bring a lunch, and plan to spend the day! Our last rotation will begin at 12:45 P.M. Students will be able to enjoy lunch, and visit camps once the last rotation ends.

We will have a total of 8 learning stations consisting of the following topics:

1. Infantry soldier
2. Mounted cavalry
3. Artillery
(All three above stations will discuss uniforms and weaponry)
4. Flags of the war: US
5. Flags of the war: Confederate
6. Ladies program
7. Pleasant Hill history of the 1860s
8. Civil war medicine (doctor program)

Each presentation should be approximately 15 minutes of content, 5 minutes for questions and moving to next station.

Groups numbering up to 20 students MUST HAVE at least ONE ADULT supervisor with the group at all times. Groups of 20 or more MUST HAVE at least TWO ADULT supervisors with the group at all times.

This event is for grades 6th-12th-- exception- homeschool groups.

Our School Day is sure to be both fun and educational, and a field trip your students won't forget!
